A. R. PENNY.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. McClure, of the D. & D. Institute, died Saturday.

—Mr. A. Handley has his new residence on Stanford pike about completed and will move in at once.

—Thanksgiving services at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday. Rev. J. M. Worrell preached the sermon.

—If Madam Rumor is correct 17 weddings will take place in this city during the winter. Some that are talked of if they are consummated will greatly surprise people.

—Misses Hattie Shumate and Maggie Wingate are expected home to-day from a visit to friends and relatives in Louisville. Mr. R. G. Price spent Thanksgiving in New Orleans. Quite a number of college boys spent Thanksgiving at their homes.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold, of the Methodist church, is still holding a meeting at Junction City, with 36 additions up to Sunday night. There is much interest manifested in the protracted meeting at the Baptist church, in this place. A few additions and large crowds in attendance. Mr. White is a forcible and earnest speaker.

—Mr. Alex. Humble, of the Farmers National Bank, has been troubled for some time with something in his stomach which became so serious he concluded to have an operation performed. Saturday evening Mrs. McMurtry and Dunlap cut into his stomach and found a stone which had caused an abscess, which they removed and up to this writing the patient is getting along very well with good chances of recovery.

—Rev. Mr. Rand, presiding elder of the Methodist church of this district, had a close call at Mitchellsburg a day or two since. He was stopping with Mr. Mitchell, at that place, who has a deer park, and Mr. Rand, thinking the animals harmless, went in, but was met by a big buck that made at him and knocked him to the ground. He regained his feet, grabbed the deer by the horns and was thrown astraddle of him, but was jumped off, when the deer began to butt him again. He at last got him by the horns and held him until he was assisted to let him loose.

—Martin D. Hardin, a son of Attorney General P. W. Hardin, won the first honors in the declamatory contest between the literary societies of Centre College. His subject was "The Immortal Memory of George Washington." Lucien V. Rule, of Goshen, with "National and State Sovereignty" for his subject, was awarded the second honor. There were eight contestants and all acquitted themselves creditably. The only criticism that could be offered was the too loud and long applauding. Several complained of having the headache after leaving the hall.

DEADWOOD, CASEY COUNTY.

—Isaac Kelsey has moved to Frankfort. Web Holden has sold his interest in the mill operated by Holden & Worthington to Mr. Blades.

—A wag reading out article on "Wooden plate" Wilson last week suggested that "Woodpecker" Wilson would be very appropriate.

—I find after investigating the matter that Mr. Johnson, the post-master at Kingsville, was not the one in fault in the delay of our mail some weeks ago. It seems that he was not furnished with a pouch for this office, hence could do nothing more than hold the mail due this office until a pouch was furnished for the same.

—Accordingly, as we announced in our last, the marriage of Mr. Andrew Mainard and Miss Lorena Bolin took place at the residence of Mr. G. P. Bolin last Thursday. Quite a number of relatives, friends and neighbors were present to witness the tying of the knot and "woosh 'em much joy" in their wedded life. Mrs. Bolin, mother of the bride, one of the best of cooks, had an excellent supper prepared, which everybody seemed to enjoy, especially Louis Worthington, who went home shortly after supper complaining of a pain under his apron. After the good things on the table were dispensed with the dining-room was cleared of its contents. Jerry Hogue, Uncle Jack Napier and Biven Meade furnished the music and lad and lass, old and young, tripped the light fantastic till the clock on the mantel marked the hour of 12.

—Jay Gould's stock purchases for the past three weeks amount to over $10,000,000.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The McKendree meeting was to close last night. The additions to yesterday were 12.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison will begin a protracted meeting at Pineville on the 12th of December.

—The Baptist church at Erlanger will be dedicated Sunday by Rev. W. H. Felix, of Lexington.

—Logan Davison was baptized by Rev. T. J. Godbey and received into the Methodist church this week.

—Two revivals are in progress at Owensboro. The Baptist has had 38 and the Christian 18 conversions.

—I will preach at Sugar Grove School-house next Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 9 A. M. on that day. J. G. Livingston.

—Rev. Sam Jones has had 700 professions of religion at his meeting at Palestine, Texas, and the grateful people have raised $1,800 for him.

—A memorial service in honor of the late Mrs. W. L. Dawson will be held at the Christian church Sunday morning next. Rev. John Bell Gibson will officiate.

—Rev. G. W. Farley has been deposed from the Methodist ministry at Harpster, O., for unbecoming conduct with Miss Lydia Moulds, a beautiful blonde of 24. The preacher is 34 and has a wife and three children.

—Comparatively speaking, the performances in the revival and religious meetings of the Indians are no more extravagant or fanatical than what can be seen in camp meetings and similar religious gatherings in the heart of the most enlightened communities.

—The corner stone of St. Mary's, the first Episcopal church to be built in Bell county, was laid at Middlesboro Monday. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. H. H. Sneed, the Episcopal minister. This makes the 8th church which is now built or being built in Middlesboro.

—The ladies of the Christian Endeavor Society decorated the Christian church in a beautiful and appropriate manner for the thanksgiving service yesterday, fruits, cereals, evergreens, &c., being used in the ornamentation. Rev. T. J. Godbey preached the thanksgiving sermon, which was truly the outpouring of a grateful heart for the spiritual and temporal blessings vouchsafed.

—Rev. W. Y. Sheppard will hold service at Odd Fellows Hall at 11 o'clock Sunday, at which time the Holy Communion will be celebrated. A general invitation is extended. The Odd Fellows have not only agreed to let the congregation use the hall for a nominal sum all the time, but absolutely gives it to them without money and without price till January 1.

—The Beattyville Enterprise says that the 10-days' meeting conducted there by Dr. Guerrant and Bro. Joe Hopper resulted in great good and caused many to come out on the Lord's side. A branch of the Presbyterian church was organized and in a few minutes, subscriptions amounting to $1,020 were obtained to be applied to the erection of a house of worship for the new congregation.

—The protracted meeting at McKendree church, near Hubble, is still in progress. Quite a number of converts up to the present and a great many penitents at the altar. Rev. S. A. Day, who is assisting T. J. Godbey, is conducting the services somewhat on the order of an old-fashioned Methodist revival. He is presenting the gospel in a very favorable way and the large crowds that attend the services are favorably impressed with his earnestness and zeal in the cause. Over 300 people were in attendance one evening. G. A. T.

The credit system of doing business has ruined many good and honest men. A man's good credit has often proved his worst enemy and few men find this out until it is too late. Too many men often buy on credit. They pay higher prices for their goods and buy much more than they otherwise would, the run of the account is forgotten and the buying runs haphazard until the end of the year and then the account is surprisingly large, and one has bought a third more than he would have done had he been paying up right along, and paid more for them. The credit system is ruining men every day. —Iowa Index.

Thanksgiving day, originally an annual religious festival first observed in New England, did not become a national institution till 1863, since which the president has designated the 4th Thursday in November as a day of prayer and thanksgiving.

—A Chicago company has bought 19,000 acres of land on the Main Licking river in Morgan county for $95,000.

—T. L. Lillard and R. Cobb, Jr., purchased of J. G. Lynn and W. A. Hail 20 cattle at 2.60 to 3.35 and a lot of hogs at 3 cts.

—W. C. McCann has bought the trotting stallion, Allie Wilkes, owned by Stanhope & Bros., for $20,000. His record is 2:22.

—For SALE.—Eighteen (18) good cotton yearling mules, thirteen (13) of which are mares. W. L. Letcher, Paint Lick, Garrard county, Ky.

—T. M. Handy, of Jessamine, sold to W. M. Swope, of Fayette, a 15-year-old jennet and a 4 months old jack colt at $640; also a yearling jennet at $185.

—Rue & Evans, of Boyle, have sold to a southern party the promising young mare Corinne, 2:31, 3-year-old, by Mambrino Starlet, (sire of Mambrino Maid 2:17) for $2,300.

—Cattle have advanced in Cincinnati but the market is dull. Best shippers 4½, butchers, common to good 2 to 3½; hogs are active, but best bring only 3.90; sheep are slow at 2½ to 5.

—At W. F. Abraham's sale corn shucked at the heap brought $2 to $2.10; horses $100 to $112.50, mule colts $32, fat hogs 3.40, Jersey cows and calves $32 to $40. Mr. Abraham still has the farm of 240 acres to rent, a good broke mule and numerous other things for sale.

—E. W. Lee bought one car-load of export cattle, weight about 1,600, from Kelley, of Garrard, and a like number from Squire Murphy, of Lincoln, for 3½. D. N. Prewitt bought of Garrard county parties 2 car-loads of hogs for shipment at 3.15 and 3.65.—Danville Advocate.

—The turkey business has assumed quite extensive proportions in Shelbyville. Messrs. L. G. Smith & Co. shipped 14,000 pounds Sunday morning, and have handled 11,000 turkeys in the past ten days. Altogether this firm has shipped 40 tons of turkeys the present season, for which they paid 6 to 7 cents a pound.—News.

—The Winchester Sun says that W. B. Kidd shipped for Lehman Bros., Baltimore, last Saturday, 125 of the finest cattle ever shipped from the Bluegrass region. One hundred head of these cattle were bought of S. D. Goff at 4½ cents, and averaged 1,800 pounds. The others weighed 1,728 and brought 4½.

—There were 600 cattle on the Winchester market Monday and all offerings sold at fully 25 cents higher per cwt than last week. Among the public sales were 28 good feeders, 1,200 pounds, at 3.35½, 23 do 1,150 at 3.07, 27 do at 2.88 and several lots of common at 2½ to 2½ light yearlings sold at $18.10 per head and 55 good do at $25.

—A correspondent of the Louisville Times says that one of the most successful trainers in the Kentucky circuit this year was Al Hutchings. He started in 48 races, winning 18 first moneys, 12 2d moneys, 10 3d moneys, 4 4th moneys and was unplaced only four times, and put seven new performers in the 2:30 list, two of them being 2-year-olds and two 3-year-olds.

—It is stated that the Goldsmiths, Lehman and a few other wealthy firms who buy cattle for the export trade, have leased the cattle shipping privileges of all the steamers plying between this country and England for a period of 5 years, paying cash down in advance. This will give them a corner in the market and put small dealers and producers practically at their mercy.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

—After debating the question for several days the convention by a vote of 52 to 30 decided to let the governor continue to pardon before conviction.

—If the convention does not change its mind all State officers, except the auditor, will hereafter be ineligible for re-election. The treasurer's term has been increased to four years, the length of the other terms.

—The convention has abolished the system of compensating certain executive officers for the State at large by fees, by adopting the following: All officers mentioned in this article shall be paid for their services by salary, and not otherwise.

—The convention ought by all means to adopt the provision that amendments can be made hereafter to the constitution by being submitted to a vote of the people by the legislature. Neither this generation nor any succeeding one should suffer another session of a convention.

—The convention spent Tuesday on the question of raising the stenographer's pay from $35 to $60 a day and after a great deal of talk finally agreed to pay him $15 a day extra when two sessions are held. It is stated that the stenographer clears about $500 a month after paying himself a good salary.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—James T. Brown and Miss Sallie F. Clarkson were married at the bride father's near McKinney yesterday.

—John Harp, aged 33, and Miss Ellen Burk, just 17, celebrated Thanksgiving by getting married. Both parties live near Preachersville.

—The base-ball diamond is the place to get a wife. Arlie Latham, one of the darling ball twirlers, has just been married for the 5th time. The girl fell in love with him when he was "slidin' third."

—There are said to be 15,000 brass bands in this country with 150,000 performers.

—The report that President Polk, of the farmers' alliance, is working for the re-election of Ingalls to the United States Senate is causing a breeze in alliance circles. They think if Mr. Polk is for Ingalls, he has been bought, and that's about the size of it.

—The Pleasant Ridge Park Distillery, near Louisville, collapsed under the weight of 12,500 barrels of whisky. The loss on the building is $8,000; the loss of whisky is put at $10,000. The same day the Withers distillery at Henderson burned and a great deal of whisky was destroyed.

—The Supreme Court of the United States decided that the United States has jurisdiction over the Island of Navassa, and that, therefore, the Navassa rioters, under sentence of death, must hang. A Baltimore firm had them digging guano on the Island, and in a riot they killed the foreman and other white men.

—Jim Sharpe shot at Bill White at the Proctor mining camp, near Jellico, but the ball going wide of its mark struck Mrs. Bettie Graham in the abdomen and lodged in her womb. She was soon expected to be confined. The bullet killed the fetus and mortally wounded the woman. Sharpe immediately fled to the mountains for safety.

Without irreverence it may be said that the negative side of things also calls for unusual thankfulness this year. We are thankful that so many things did not come. The cholera stopped in Spain. France is fighting it back from her borders, and with success. The financial panic did not come, though many experts expected it in September. The great drought and flood foretold by various weather prophets were withheld. The failure of crops was, after all, not a fourth so bad as we expected. We are thankful for negative blessings.

Thanksgiving is really the highest devotion, the truest mark of the true christian. It consists, moreover, not of speech only, but of action, of thank offering as well as thanksgiving. So this present great annual national day of thanksgiving ought to bring forth abundant treasure from those on whom God has bestowed His blessing.

The Vreeland Minstrels gave a very pleasing entertainment in the Opera House Thursday night last to a large audience. Those present enjoyed themselves hugely. The show was a good one in all respects and loudly applauded.—Kittanning Republican, Oct. 22.

W. P. WALTON.

AUGUST BELMONT, the millionaire banker, turfman and politician, died in New York Monday of pneumonia, aged 74. He was a German by birth and first came to this country as a representative of the Austrian government. He loved it so well that he became a citizen. Attaching himself to the democratic party he became one of its most enthusiastic supporters, and from 1860 till 1872 he was chairman of the National Committee. He was also for 20 years president of the American Jockey Club and a great patron of horse interests and owned a number of noted flyers himself. His three sons, Oliver, August and Perry, have each proved themselves worthy sons of a noble sire, Perry, who chose politics as his field, having become quite distinguished. It is related of Mr. Belmont that he became so earnest in favor of the nomination of Mr. Bayard for the presidency in 1880, after Tilden's letter of declination, that he offered to pay the entire expenses of the campaign if the convention would nominate him. He was always very liberal in his contributions to his party and in fact he was a liberal man in every sense. His death will be deplored by the democrats and sadly felt by the patrons of the turf.

GROVER CLEVELAND has no more use for Ingalls than any other democrat who knows the vineyard visaged villifier. The ex-president has written to a friend in Kansas as follows: "There is no one thing of the same grade of importance which has resulted from the recent election, or which ought to please democrats and decent people so much as the prospects of the retirement of Ingalls. I do not know what kind of a democrat it would be who would not labor in season and out of season to prevent the return to the Senate of this villifier of everything democratic, who has been put forward by the republican party to pour out abuse too bad for even decent republicans, and who was made the presiding officer of the Senate to crown their insults to our party." While this letter expresses a sentiment that will be generally endorsed, Mr. Cleveland is much put out over its publication and savagely told a reporter that "The man must be a fool to reveal the contents of a letter he knew was written to him in confidence."

KENTUCKY paid in internal revenue this year $17,059,042.10 on spirits and tobacco, the largest amount of any State save Illinois. There were 5,386,419½ gallons of proof spirits rectified and 919,320 bushels of malt, 13,625 wheat, 5 barley, 1,449,067 rye, 6,075,330 corn, 2,332 oats, and 65 bushels of mill feed, making a total of 8,459,734 bushels, together with 132,538 gallons of molasses were used. In addition 184,089 gallons of brandy were made. The tobacco factories used up 16,822,084 pounds of leaf tobacco, while 34,719,985 cigars were made in the State. The amount of whisky and brandy made in Kentucky is equal to about three gallons for every man, woman and child within her borders.

MURAT HALSTEAD, in the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, is getting what consolation he can from the late devastation of republican hopes, by saying that the victory will allure the democrats to destruction. Of course the wish is father to the thought, though there is danger from the hot hot heads and impracticables. If the democrats behave themselves as we hope and believe they will during the next two years, every branch of the government will be in their hands within five years.

THE democratic State Central Committee has issued an address urging the democrats of Louisville to stand by their regularly authenticated candidate for mayor, H. S. Tyler, the representative of organized government and party responsibility. Mr. Reed refused to submit his claim to the action of the democratic party, although claiming to be a democrat, and he deserves for that, if for no other reason, to be unmercifully snowed under.

THE democrat who didn't give thanks yesterday isn't worthy of the birthright and ought to be excommunicated. With peace, prosperity and democratic ascendancy blessing the land, the heart that is not grateful must be a very black republican one and hardly capable of thankfulness for being alive. There was joy and thanksgiving all over this fair democratic land and praises to Him from Whom all blessings flow.

THE Owensboro Messenger comes out of its baptism of fire brighter and more attractive than ever. A new outfit from Chicago has arrived and the office is now the best equipped in the State outside of Louisville. You can't keep a working man down, and Urey Woodson is a worker from Laborville.

THE English language is not sufficient for the Louisville Times to express its contempt for Booker Reed and his followers, so it fires a column of Dutch at their heads. The mayoralty contest is exceedingly hot and the afternoon papers are contributing their full quota to the boiling cauldron.

Gov. McCREARY told an interviewer that the Force bill will not be passed by the Senate this session or at all, because the Senators will recognize the demand of the ballots to go slow in foisting such a measure upon the country. Even if they wanted to pass it they won't have time to. There are 14 general appropriation bills that must be passed to pay the running expenses of the government and it takes all of the three months' session to dispose of them. If any time is consumed with the Force Bill these appropriations bills can not all be disposed of, in which case the next Congress would have to be called together and you can just rest assured that the present administration is not going to risk the necessity of having to call together a body so overwhelmingly democratic as that will be, and will accordingly take no chance of being compelled to do so.

THE popularity of Cleveland in the South was shown Tuesday when some fellow sent out the report that he was on the train bound for New Orleans. Immense crowds gathered at Montgomery, Mobile and other cities and towns along the line to do honor to the grandest man that this generation has produced. It was a cruel hoax, but the result furnished a straw for the politicians to see which way the wind is blowing in the South and elsewhere.

It is stated that the Dunnell reapportionment bill will not be pushed by the republicans in Congress, but another bill prepared by Reed and the census juggler, Porter, will be pushed through, although the next Congress is rightfully entitled to do the apportioning. The Reed bill will fix the membership at 332, as at present, and will increase representation in republican and decrease it in democratic States.

Two years ago the republican majority on Congressmen in New York was 57-767 and they elected by their gerrymander 19 of the 34 representatives. This year the democratic majority is 78,815 and the delegation stands 22 to 12 republicans. The democrat also, notwithstanding the most partisan of gerrymanders, elected a majority of the legislators which will elect a democratic successor to Mr. Everts.

It seems to be the intention of the con. con. to change the regular election day from August to November and provide that all elections shall be held on that day. We sincerely hope it will. August is the worst time of the year the election could be held, besides reducing the elections to one a year will save the people the continual political turmoil that has been inflicted on them recently.

THE alleged Indian uprising seems to have been caused more from hunger than anything else. The government furnishes them rations, but they are swindled out of them by rascally agents, whose duty it is to see that they are delivered. An empty stomach will make a civilized man anxious for war, much less a poor, untutored savage.

"MRS. PARTINGTON," as Benjamin P. Shillabar was known in the world of humor, after having passed the allotted span of life, passed peacefully away at Boston Wednesday. His peculiar style of humor was to make Mrs. Partington say all manner of witty things in the most inopportune applied words.

THE news comes from across the sea that Mary Anderson is engaged in that most delightful of tasks to a young married woman—the making of baby clothes.

THE Lexington Transcript used a picture of old Saddlebags McDonald for August Belmont, which did as well as any other for those who did not know any better.

WITH TWO or three exceptions our merchants united with the banks in observing Thanksgiving yesterday. Mrs. Courts was at the postoffice nearly all day and was on hand last night to receive and deliver the INTERIOR JOURNAL, for which we return thanks.

BROKE HIS LEG.—Willis Parris, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Parris, had his right leg broken half way between the hip and knee. He was swinging on Lewis Withers' buggy, when the limb was caught in the wheel, breaking the bone and forcing it into the flesh. Dr. Reid was called and assisted by Dr. Bailey, reduced the fracture and made the little fellow as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. He suffered a great deal during the night and was so restless that the bones got out of place again and had to be reset next day.

At the last term of the circuit court a jury let Tom Carter off with three months in jail for throwing a club from a train and crushing the skull of Alex Walker, a colored man. This excuse of a sentence has now been respited by Gov. Buckner for six months, which of course is the last of it. So far as we are concerned, we are glad that Carter has been permitted to go and help make a living for his family, now about to be increased, but his was far from being a case for executive clemency. We fear the governor is getting too handy with his pardons. At least it looks that way in several cases have recently come under our observation.

A DAY or two ago Mrs. E. C. Welsh and Mrs. J. T. Sutton, who was at her house, saw a man on the railroad beckoning to some one. As they could see nobody, they finally concluded he was motioning at them and becoming alarmed, called for Mr. Welsh. In the meantime the man had made a vulgar demonstration and when Mr. Welsh appeared on the scene he took to his heels. Several shots at him with a pistol brought him to a halt, when he begged like a dog and said he was so drunk that he had mistaken the ladies. After giving him a sound lecture and threatening to kill him if he was caught at the like again, Mr. Welsh let him go, although he should have given him a severe trouncing. The fellow was well dressed, had a black moustache and claimed to be a nephew of Mr. J. A. Harris, which of course was a lie.

A BANK ROBBER.—Will Severance, who is very fond of a practical joke, had considerable fun at the expense of the town marshal and others Tuesday night. Dressing up in a peculiar suit and painting his nose red, he stood around the street corners inquiring of passers where the bank cashier lived. Fatty Nunneley was the first man accosted and he, after some hemming and hawing, told the man where that individual could be found. He next interrogated Charley Carson, who as soon as possible, ran down and told President S. H. Shanks. Marshal Newland was sent for to apprehend the bank robber, as the fellow was supposed to be, and that officer responded with his usual alacrity. A posse was summoned and after a big hunt through Macksville and elsewhere, the joker was captured and the boys thought they had done a big thing. Their looks and their feelings can be imagined when, on getting to the light, the familiar features of Will Severance were recognized. They wanted to hang him whether or no, but better counsel finally prevailed and the bank robber was permitted to go and think up some other way to play the suckers.

WANTED, a position as local or editorial paragrapher on a Ky. paper. Five years' experience in newspaper work. Address "Hamlet," this office.

A CAREY reporter writes: E. Montgomery, who has been selling liquor contrary to law around here, was arrested by James Noel. M. Taylor, who assisted in the arrest, was shot through the vest and undershirt several times, barely escaping being killed. Montgomery was taken to Liberty and placed behind the bars.

VREELAND'S MINSTRELS, 22 strong, will arrive on the south-bound train to-day and about 2 o'clock will give a grand street parade. The performance will be at 8 and judging from the complimentary testimonials of the press in all the Kentucky towns in which they have appeared, it will be equal to any ever seen here. Secure a seat early at McRobert's drug store or you may have to stand.

FOR LIFE.—Wils Jennings, who was tried at London this week for killing J. S. Bailey, in Harlan county, was given a sentence to the penitentiary for life. He is a nephew of the notorious Wils Howard and numerous murders are charged to him both in Kentucky and Missouri. He doesn't look at all like a bad man, however, and during his stay of six months in jail here, gave Mr. Owens no trouble whatever.

Or the Heine Family, that will give two concerts at Walton's Opera House on the 5th and 6th of December, under the auspices of the Gleaners for the Kingdom, Rev. J. G. Hunter, of Danville, says: "The whole family are wonderfully gifted in music. The professor is a prodigy in the use of the violin and the spirit of all, both on and off the stage, won many appreciative words from those who were so fortunate as to hear these musicians." The object of the young ladies in employing the company is to help pay the salary of a Japanese minister. Your attendance will therefore help a good cause, besides giving yourself the pleasure of a musical treat.

DISCHARGED.—The evidence in the case of Marshal Tom Martin for the killing of Albert Camden was substantially the same as the report given in our last issue and at his examining trial Tuesday, Judge Varnon promptly and properly discharged him. W. E. Vernon represented Mr. Martin and made a strong speech for him. County Attorney Paxton was of the opinion that under the circumstances the marshal should have placed the warrant for the arrest of Camden in the hands of another officer instead of attempting to serve it himself, which act he thought not only reckless, but calculated to bring on the trouble it did. In this connection we will state that Mr. Martin says he did not intend to be discourteous when he told a reporter of this paper in response to a request for his version of the affair, that he would tell it only on the witness stand. He had been advised not to talk about the case and that was all he intended to convey.

THE initial hop given by the Stanford Orchestra Wednesday evening was an occasion that will not soon be forgotten by those who attended. The programme included the very latest music and he who did not feel moved by the melodious rendition of it, is truly fit for treason, stratagem and spoils. The popular overture, "Chimes of Normandy," was played while the floor cards were being filled and was an exceedingly fine presentation of that grand piece of music. There were about 20 couples who participated in the worship of Terpsichore and a delightful time was had. Besides our home young ladies the following from Lancaster added greatly to the pleasure of the evening: Misses Nellie Marrs, Altie Marksburg, Georgia and Jennie Moore and Isabel Owsley. The gentlemen present from a distance were Messrs. Marksburg, Tevis, Doty, West, Fox, Rice and Robinson, of Lancaster, and Baughman, Dillehay, Creel, Drake, Rice, Moore and Adams, of Danville. The night was a perfect one, the moon hanging high in a cloudless sky and the air exhilarating and love-inspiring.

JAILED.—Wednesday two young fellows riding the same horse dashed through town at a break-neck speed. Marshal Newland tried to stop them, but he did not do so till they had gotten some distance in the country and then they refused to surrender. One of them attempted to draw a pistol, but in the effort let it drop. By this time the marshal had them covered with his and thinking no doubt that discretion was the better part of valor, they decided to go with him. One of them in his efforts to frighten Mr. Newland said that he was a bad man and had killed one or two persons, including Cam Rowsey, but "brother" didn't scare worth a cent and soon had them before the police judge. The bad man gave his name as Jesse James and he was soon in jail in default of $5 fine and is still there. His real name is Tom Mann, but for goodness sakes don't say we did it, as he threatened to put the man who published his name under ground. His companion, Prewitt Brown, was given 10 days and $25 for carrying a pistol concealed and upon his replying the fine he was granted a stay of 10 days on the jail sentence. They are both from near Junction City and the little lesson will be beneficial to them, especially we hope to "Jesse James, the slayer of Cam Rowsey."

THE claims allowed against Lincoln county exceed any in the State that we have seen published. The last census gives this county 15,922 population and Clark county 15,360, yet the claims of the former are over $13,000 and the latter but $4,917.14, although it includes the pay of magistrates and numerous other items, which in this county are paid out of the treasury and not put in the list of claims. County Attorney J. B. Paxton can distinguish himself by having the claims reduced next year to something like the sum they ought to be.

SHERIFF PEARL and Deputy Chestnut, of Laurel, delivered B. P. Martin to the jailer here yesterday. The grand jury indicted him for the murder of young Hodge, at Lily, and as the jailer of Laurel married a sister of the man killed, it was thought best to send him here for safe keeping. It is Martin's intention to apply for bail under writ of habeas corpus. Mr. Pearl told a reporter that the jail at London was being guarded under the impression that Wils Howard and his crowd would attempt to rescue Jennings.

MARRIAGE of Col. Fish to Miss Arthur. (Special to The Interior Journal.)

WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 27, 1890.—This morning at 8 o'clock Col. J. B. Fish, of Pineville, was united in marriage to Miss M. E. Arthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Arthur, of this place, at their residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Jerome Freys. The marriage was witnessed only by a few intimate friends and relatives of the parties. The ceremony was performed in a most beautiful and solemn manner. The parlor was decorated with vines and flowers, which made everything look bright and cheerful. The bride was attired in a gray traveling suit and never appeared more lovely. The groom wore a black dress suit and looked every inch the splendid physical man that he is. Miss Arthur is a beautiful brunette, and possesses rare grace and intelligence. She graduated last June at Loretto. Mr. Fish is a banker and prominent business man of Pineville and has been one of the lucky ones in the boom towns, having amassed quite a snug fortune. Mr. and Mrs. Fish left on the first train for Louisville and after remaining there for a few days, will go on a tour South. The attendants were T. N. Roberts, of Danville, and Miss Martie Smith, of Chicago. Wednesday evening before the marriage quite a number of their friends called and spent a most enjoyable time. A bountiful table of refreshments was served during the evening and some melodious music was discoursed as a serenade by the Williamsburg brass band. T. N. R.

OYSTERS served at all hours at S. S. Myers'.

Some Observations by Our Lancaster Reporter.

The objects for which the pretended white Messiah of Illinois and the red-skinned Messiah of the far West have made their appearance upon earth have not been generally understood. If they have come to make the world better, there is ample room for a manifestation of their power. It is a question worthy of the most serious consideration whether or not, in spite of the advancing civilization of the age, and the most forcible presentation of the great and self-evident truths of christianity, the world has not been growing worse instead of better; and whether an increase of knowledge has not been attained by a corresponding increase in meanness and rascality. "All is not gold that glitters" is as true now as when first uttered. Lying, cheating, swindling, stealing and killing are not things of the past. They are here, and so far as human observation extends, have come to stay. Messiah Schweinfurth and Messiah Bannock Jim, now is the time to establish your claims to divinity, by making a raid upon sin in all its forms and by routing the devil horse, foot and dragoons.

Gen. Miles, the celebrated Indian fighter, who is in command of the U. S. troops in the West, says that in dealing with the Indians, "it is not my intention to tolerate any nonsense." The general's determination is commendable, but his ability to enforce his intentions is quite a different affair. Some two or three years since Dr. Waite came to Lancaster with an Indian show, in which the sale of medicine figured largely. He was accompanied by Talikeno, an aged medicine man, who beat the drum to perform cures and to inspire the braves when preparing to go on the war-path. Among the performers was Chief American Horse, who was an expert rifle shot, and whose exhibitions of skill in target shooting were simply marvelous. They remained in Lancaster several weeks and visited other towns in Kentucky. The dignified bearing of these noted chiefs was conspicuous and they departed leaving many friends. Both of these Indians are mentioned in connection with the craze now in progress among the Indians in the West. Fortunately, it is said that they are good Indians and are acting in the interest of peace. It is to be hoped that Gen. Miles will not allow the soldiers under his command to do anything to provoke a conflict; for a collision under the circumstances would in all probability end in the utter defeat of the U. S. forces. Gen. Miles' intention to tolerate no nonsense to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Hon. J. Proctor Knott and Wilbur F. Browder, in a voluminous correspondence in the Courier-Journal, have for several weeks been denouncing each other in terms more elegant than polite. The controversy under discussion relates to the course of Ex-Gov. Knott upon the subject of corporations in the constitutional convention. Forgetful of the fact that quite a number of their readers have not received the benefit of a classical education, they branch outside of the English language and give vent to their venom in Latin, without furnishing a translation of the same. For instance, Mr. Browder fires this awful sentence at the ex-governor: "Quos Deus vult perdere prius dementat," whereupon the ex-gov. responds with this terrible broadside: "Ex molestissime ferre homines debent quod ipsorum culpa ferenda sunt." It is evident that a proper translation of Mr. Browder's quotation is that "whom God intends to destroy he first makes mad"; but a translation of the latter requires more learning. It seems that a proper rendering would mean something like this: "If you molest me fearful man, I will kick you into the middle of next week," or words to that effect. If Mr. Browder had said to the ex-governor: "In the beautiful and impressive language of the poet, you're a liar," the governor might have saved much time, labor and ink by replying "You're another," and all the world would have said "amen."

There are abundant reasons for the belief that foolishness, like the small-pox, measles, whooping-cough and mumps, is contagious. There is a general disposition to censure the Indians for their wonderful craze in regard to a Messiah, without considering the fact that they have had scarcely any of the benefits of civilization, and all they have learned from their white brethren has been to handle breech-loading rifles and to be fed and clothed without having to work. As to their coming Messiah the whites have gone a step beyond them in the person of Schweinfurth, of Rockford, Ill., who has solemnly announced that he is not only the Messiah, but that he has arrived at his earthly destination and is permanently located. True he has brought no corn nor wine to his people, but he is ready and willing to receive corn and wine from them at all times at his residence in Rockford. A number of good people have visited him from Richmond and have found the long-bearded impostor very agreeable in his manners and exceedingly affable to all who are willing to admit his pretensions and minister to his comfort. It would no doubt be conducive to his health if he were put to work in a cornfield and certainly beneficial to the community in which he resides. "Bannock Jim" claims to be the Indian Messiah who has also arrived and set up his kingdom upon the earth; and this will doubtless be followed by other self-constituted Mes-siahs all over the country who will catch the contagion and use the same for selfish and mercenary purposes. The best thing to do with the red skins would be to let them severely alone and let them dance it out on that line if it takes all winter. If they would dance themselves to death it would be better than to have them killed by the whites. In a conflict growing out of this trouble the Indians would have decidedly the advantage and the little handful of regular troops would not be a breakfast spell for the dusky braves. The fate of Custer would be repeated on a larger scale and harm instead of good be the result.

Scarcity of Fruit in France.
French journals lament that unfavorable weather has almost altogether deprived the country of fruit this year. A disastrous amount of rain has so afflicted the central, northern, western and southwestern districts that the markets have been almost bare of fruit except such as had come from the south. One correspondent, writing from the department of the Seine-et-Marne, says: "We have had neither cherries nor apricots nor plums; apples have been greatly injured by hail; pears have suffered less, but our grapes will not ripen." And another, writing from Brittany, says that there the pears are all spoiled, apples are lacking in many localities, and almost all the plums have perished; that peaches are everywhere non-existent; that gooseberries and raspberries have been relatively scanty, and that, although strawberries have been quite plentiful, they "had only the form of the fruit with the taste of water." Meanwhile the complaints of excessive drought have been coming in from the south, where we are told even in the carefully watered gardens the trees and shrubs had faded and withered. Near the coast the moist sea breezes "assure the abundance of the grape crop," but further north the grape growers are reported to be in despair over the persistent dryness.

Parental Gloom to Our Homes.
Boys and girls are often spoiled by parental gloom. The father never understands. The mother's rheumatism hurts so she does not see how little Maggie can ever laugh. Childish curiosity is denounced as impertinence. The parlor is a parliament, and everything in everlasting order. Balls and tops in that house are a nuisance, and the pap that the boy is expected most to relish is geometry, a little sweetened with the chalk of blackboards. For cheerful reading the father would recommend "Young's Night Thoughts," and Hervey's "Meditations Among the Tombs." At the first chance the boy will break loose. With one grand leap he will clear the catechisms; he will burst away into all riotous living. He will be so glad to get out of Egypt that he will jump into the Red Sea. The hardest colts to catch are those that have a long while been locked up. Restraints are necessary, but there must be some outlet. Too high a dam will overflow all the meadows.—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage.

A New Type of Gun.
William T. Chamberlain, of Norwich, has invented and perfected a gun which promises to be the most durable, simple and effective gun ever made. It is called the electric hydrogen gun. There are three methods of firing the arm. By the first method Mr. Chamberlain claims the projectile is sent from the gun by a pressure equal to 37,000 atmospheres; by the second process by four times that force, and by the third method it is transformed into an air gun with a pressure of from 1,500 to 2,000 pounds. The gun is simple, without other machinery than the chamber and barrel. The demand for new and valuable weapons is so large that some of the great powers may find in this arm the executor they have been anticipating, while Mr. Chamberlain may find in it the fortune the shadow of which has kept his brain active and his hands busy for many a day.—Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin.

They Are Glad to Know Him Now.
A New Yorker of very limited means recently got a bequest, the news of which was printed in the papers. As soon as the fact became known he got heavy mails that brought him letters from all kinds of charitable societies in need of aid, and from a host of the sufferers by impotency. He also found more callers at his house than there ever before had been knockers at his door, and he likewise enjoyed when in the streets the sight of many more smiling faces than he had previously been acquainted with. Never until this month had he realized the attractive power of the mighty dollar. He now finds that his deceased bachelor uncle, who left him a bequest, has endowed him with something else not set down in the last will, to wit, cynicism.—New York Sun.

The Parnellite business cost The London Times exactly £180,000. The shareholders of the paper were compelled to forego their dividends for the last year and for the first six months of this year in order to pay it. John Walter owns sixteen shares, and his loss was £48,000, the dividend on each share being £3,000. The circulation of the paper and its receipts for advertisements are constantly increasing.—Chicago Herald.

Sport in California is illustrated by the following from a local paper: "Ben Smith, a farmer of Coos Bay, saw a large buck in his field the other day, and went after it. By the time Smith reached the brush he found a big panther eating the buck. Smith killed the panther and took the deer to his house."

There was lately landed in San Francisco a freak worth mentioning in the shape of a coal black mare from Australia that is utterly and absolutely without a single hair, having not so much as mane or tail. In all other respects she is a model of the equine race.
—Smithfield, Va., did a business of more than $500,000 in peanuts last year.

HUBBLE.
—Luther Underwood & Bros., received their hogs this week that had been fed on Sugar Creek and they had just doubled in weight. Henry Cox sold James Smith some shoats weighing 150 pounds at 3.15. Dave Thompson bought some cattle of Mrs. Menefee at 2.00, some of Eubanks Bros. at 2.85 and some of Green Bright for 3 cents, all weighing from 1,000 to 1,300, and received them this week.—Mr. Reuben Flora has moved to Hale's Well this week. We regret to give Mr. Flora up as he is a good citizen. Lots of the young men are losing their health over the matter and are talking of spending the early spring at the well with the good family.—Ed White sold to Wm. Hubble some meat hogs at 34.—The colored folks had a good crowd at their supper Saturday night. The Boyle county lady was successful by $6, taking in $22 at both tables to be used for a school-house.—Abe Bruce's House burned Monday with all its contents. He was living on J. Harlan's farm.—Armp Broadbush sold to D. N. Prewitt some shoats weighing 75 pounds at 24 and some weighing 250 at 3.10.—The meeting here has been quite a good one. Bro. Day is doubtless a good man and a splendid singer.—J. W. Bright is still improving and will soon be out again. Mr. J. A. Harris is visiting at Mrs. George Bright's. His daughter, Mrs. Bright, is on the sick list. Eph Engleman is getting along all right now.—Henry Taylor is hauling his corn from here this week and it is not as heavy as it was last year from the same ground.—We get the I. J. all O. K. Tuesday and Friday mornings.

Vreeland's Operatic Minstrels were at the Eldred Opera House last Saturday evening, and it is the unanimous verdict of those who know that it is the best show of the kind that ever appeared before an audience, and it is said to compare very favorably with more famous organizations.—Eldred Eagle, September 8.

READ THIS TWICE!

The only Protection that will effectually protect all people, all classes, all labor and all interests is that styled SELF PROTECTION! acquired only from a truthful knowledge of ways and means, legal and illegal, just and unjust, by which the burdens of government, profits of labor and industry, are so unequally divided.

That knowledge is power, and ignorance its slave, is forcibly illustrated daily in all walks of life, among all people, in all countries.
Where knowledge is used as a power or a means for gaining wealth without labor or an equivalent therefor, it becomes necessary to deceive or keep in ignorance of such methods those from whom the wealth is taken; hence it is that of the ten thousand newspapers printed in the United States, less than ten are absolutely free and independent of the power or control of some class, party or monopoly whose interest it is to keep the great mass of people in ignorance of their methods.

The Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer is one of the few, if not the only one, absolutely free from such influences. It is the most honest, thorough, able teacher and exponent of truthful knowledge, of reliable data, free from partisan bias, fair, frank and explicit to such degree that one cannot but feel edified and capable of forming correct conclusions therefrom. Such a paper should be in every household. Sample copies can be obtained by addressing the publishers, at Cincinnati, O.
